

Leave a legacy of love

If you have been inspired by the article on legacies in this issue of Mission Today, it's straightforward to take the next step in leaving a gift of life, faith and hope for the future.

If you have any questions about how to leave a legacy, or the kinds of projects your money could sustain for the future, we would be happy to answer them.

Please feel free to call Mary Rafat or Mgr John Dale at our National Office, and they can talk through your thoughts and any questions you may have, in complete confidence and without any obligation. The number to ring is 020 7821 9755. Alternatively, if you prefer to email, Mgr John Dale can be reached at director@missio.org.uk

We also have prepared printed information on how to leave a gift to the APF and/or Mill Hill in your Will. Simply complete the form overleaf and we will send it to you in confidence.

Your gift will help us make sure that the love of Jesus reaches the children of the world.

Could YOU be a missionary priest or brother?

Do you have enthusiasm for mission?

Have you thought of joining the 90 young men training to be missionaries at Mill Hill's international training centres? If you are a Catholic, male, single and aged between 18 and 28 you could join them.

To find out more, with no obligation, fill in the form below.

Please send me information on Mill Hill's work and training programme, in a plain envelope.

Help children in your diocese to know God

Mission Together is the children's version of the APF. You may know it from your schooldays as the Holy Childhood.

Could you help children understand the importance of mission?

Mission Together is the official charity of the Catholic Church for children's mission overseas. If you have a special affiliation with children – perhaps you're a parent, a grandparent or a retired teacher - would you consider volunteering? We need your help to build the family of God through bringing the work of Mission Together to children in primary schools and parishes in your diocese.

You could present school assemblies, or use our free educational materials in smaller group work. Full training and ongoing support will be provided, and our volunteers find their work fun and very worthwhile.

Please contact Richard Greenwood at the Mission Together National Office on 020 7821 9755 for an informal chat to find out how you could help.

You can also write to him at:
Mission Together (volunteers)
23 Eccleston Square, London SW1V 1NU

Email: missiontogether@missio.org.uk

Mission Together uses safe recruitment processes for all volunteers

Please remember APF-Mill Hill when making your Will

In gratitude for your support, prayers are offered for APF/Mill Hill benefactors at the daily Mass at the shrine of St Thérèse in Lisieux, and they are specifically remembered each day at Mass in the Mill Hill Generalate. Every Mill Hill priest offers Mass for APF members during the month of June and for all our deceased benefactors every November.

Please send me (in confidence and without obligation) information about how to leave a gift to the APF and/or Mill Hill in my Will:

Take the next step in mission

Dear friends,

As supporters of APF/Mill Hill you are an essential part of the world network and family of mission.

Whether you become an APF promoter in your parish, consider making a gift to support the worldwide work of mission, or even feel moved towards becoming a missionary yourself, we would urge you to look into the next step you can take to bring the light of the Gospel to those at home and abroad.

We hope that this issue of Mission Today has inspired you and given you a fresh understanding of how you can use your talents to bring God's Word of love and compassion to others.

Please get in touch with our National Office on 020 7821 9755 if you have any questions or suggestions.

Father John

PS: For Mission Together, we already have organised friendly teams of volunteers in many dioceses, but we are not able to say yes to all the schools that ask. Would you take a look and see if you can help?
